
Five historical blocks; means and marginal 95% paired t intervals. All methods use current full-call charges.

Dashed lines: predeclared development limits. N10: original batched B10; blue budgets share the lazy implementation.

Budget includes initialization and failed matches. This development screen does not establish formal noninferiority.